

COMMERCIAL COMPUTER SOFTWARE--RESTRICTED RIGHTS

(a) As used in this clause, "restricted computer software" means any computer program, computer data base, or documentation thereof, that has been developed at private expense and either is a trade secret, is commercial or financial and confidential or privileged, or is published and copyrighted.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in any standard commercial license or lease agreement pertaining to any restricted computer software delivered under this purchase order/subcontract, and irrespective of whether any such agreement has been proposed prior to or after issuance of this purchase order/subcontract or of the fact that such agreement may be affixed to or accompany the restricted computer software upon delivery, Seller agrees that the Company and the Government shall have the rights that are set forth in paragraph (c) of this clause to use, duplicate, or disclose any restricted computer software delivered under this purchase order/subcontract. The terms and provisions of this subcontract, including any commercial lease or license agreement, shall be subject to paragraph (c) of this clause and shall comply with Federal laws and the Federal Acquisition Regulation.

(c) (1) The restricted computer software delivered under this subcontract may not be used, reproduced, or disclosed by the Company or the Government except as provided in subparagraph (c)(2) of this clause or as expressly stated otherwise in this subcontract.

(2) The restricted computer software may be:

(i) Used or copied for use in or with the computer or computers for which it was acquired, including use at any Government installation to which such computer or computers may be transferred;

(ii) Used or copied for use in or with backup computer if any computer for which it was acquired is inoperative;

(iii) Reproduced for safekeeping (archives) or backup purposes;

(iv) Modified, adapted, or combined with other computer software, provided that the modified, combined, or adapted portions of the derivative software incorporating any of the delivered, restricted computer software shall be subject to same restrictions set forth in this purchase order/subcontract;

(v) Disclosed to and reproduced for use by support service contractors or subcontractors, subject to the same restrictions set forth in this purchase order/subcontract; and

(vi) Used or copied for use in or transferred to a replacement computer.

(3) If the restricted computer software delivered under this purchase order/subcontract is published and copyrighted, it is licensed to the Company and the Government, without disclosure prohibitions, with the rights set forth in subparagraph (c)(2) of this clause unless expressly stated otherwise in this purchase order/subcontract.

(4) To the extent feasible the Seller shall affix a Notice substantially as follows to any restricted computer software delivered under this purchase order/subcontract; or, if the Seller does not, the Company and the Government have the right to do so:

Notice--Notwithstanding any other lease or license agreement that may pertain to, or accompany the delivery of, this computer software, the rights of the Company and the Government regarding its use, reproduction, and disclosure are as set forth in Lockheed Martin Energy Research Corporation Subcontract No. _____.

(d) If any restricted computer software is delivered under this subcontract with the copyright notice of 17 U.S.C. 401, it will be presumed to be published and copyrighted and licensed to the Company and the Government in accordance with subparagraph (c)(3) of this clause, unless a statement substantially as follows accompanies such copyright notice: "Unpublished--rights reserved under the copyright laws of the United States."
