

INSTALLATION SUPERVISOR (Jan 2006)

(a) Daily Rate. If required by the Company for installation and start-up of the equipment on this Agreement, the Seller shall provide the services of an installation supervisor at the daily rate specified in the Agreement for such time as the supervisor performs services hereunder or is en route in connection with the services. For purposes of reimbursement, a day is considered a period of eight or more hours in any calendar day. For each two-hour portion, or fraction thereof, one-fourth of the daily rate shall be payable, but nothing herein authorizes payment of more than the daily rate for any one calendar day.

(b) Travel. The Company will also pay the Seller the supervisor's costs incurred for transportation, lodging, meals, and incidental expenses related to subsistence in accordance with the Travel Reimbursement Policy of this Agreement.
